These Fees are for services rendered to patients of the practice, which are not part of the GMS contract (ie non-NHS work). This type of work utilises staff time which would otherwise be spent on "core" NHS duties. These fees are based on recommendations by the BMA dated April 2008. Where no appropriate fee is noted above - the current BMA recommended fee will be charged. These can be accessed on the BMA website. Where no recommended fee exists - a reasonable fee will be agreed prior to completion of the work. This will generally be calculated according to the time taken. Fees cover medical staff time, administrative staff time, and business overheads. At this time- the practice is not subject to VAT.
